Monthly Activity and Community Policing Report – January 2022

219 Wood St. remains boarded up as a nuisance property under a temporary restraining order issued by the Honorable Judge Megan Bickerton.

We are still awaiting the pre-award conditions for the OCJS wages grant as well as the Body Worn Camera grant. The BWC grant is a 100% reimbursement grant which will allow for replacing the existing system of patchwork cameras with an up-to-date standardized system at no cost to the Village.

The PD roster was validated and submitted to OPOTA. The Village will be reimbursed for twelve (12) of the twenty-four (24) hours of training required for each officer in 2022.

The Temporary Holding Facility (jail) was approved for 2022 through the ODRC.
